Saturday, February 9, 2008

7:30 p.m.

B'nai Jeshurun Congregation

27501 Fairmount Blvd., Pepper Pike

THIS EVENT IS FREE AND OPEN TO THE COMMUNITY

Following the concert, which will emphasize the theme of tikkun olam, there will be hands-on activities for everyone to work together to encourage an end to the genocide in Darfur.

- Write letters to the media, local and national legislators and the Chinese government
- Make donations to American Jewish World Service* and decorate symbolic refugee tents with prayers, words of support, and images for a better world
- Provide much needed items* for Sudanese refugees through Jewish World Watch

(*cash and checks accepted)

Rabbi Shawn Zevit is the Director of Outreach and Tikkun Olam for the Jewish Reconstructionist Federation, and a recording artist who has been performing for over 25 years. He also teaches, trains, writes and offers spiritual leadership and organizational consulting. He is a founding member of Shabbat Unplugged, and the Davennen' Leadership Training Institute.
