

Rabbi Alan Lew, a leader in the budding Jewish meditation movement, will be visiting Ann Arbor from April 4-6, 2008. All are invited to partake in this weekend of pre-Passover spiritual preparation. The weekend will include several talks, text study, and experiential components.

Rabbi Alan Lew served many years as the spiritual leader of Congregation Beth Sholom in San Francisco, where he is currently the emeritus rabbi. He is also the founding director of Makor Or, a center for Jewish meditation adjacent to Beth Sholom. He has published several books, travels and lectures extensively, and has won numerous awards.

Weekend Schedule:

Friday April 4 at Temple Beth Emeth: 6 pm Shabbat Dinner, followed by services at 7:30 pm with a sermon by Rabbi Lew.

Saturday, April 5:

10 am Shabbat morning services at UM Hillel, followed by lunch. Afternoon learning sessions and Seudah Sh'lisheet (third meal) at Beth Israel Congregation

Sunday, April 6:

Morning meditation workshop at Beth Israel Congregation based on Rabbi Lew's recent book, "Be Still and Get Going," focusing on the Exodus from Egypt as a moment of transformation.

Cost: $36 for Shabbaton (includes all meals and materials). If you are interested in only attending particular parts of the weekend, please contact Devon Fitzig, 665-4744 , dfitzig@templebethemeth.org.

Event co-sponsors: Ann Arbor Reconstructionist Havurah, Temple Beth Emeth, Beth Israel Congregation, University of Michigan Hillel and Pardes Hannah.

Checks should be made out to 'Ann Arbor Reconstructionist Havurah' and mailed with the registration form to P.O. Box 7451, Ann Arbor, MI 48107. Please indicate in the memo section that it's for the Rabbi Alan Lew event.
