

Hiddur: The Center for Aging and Judaism of the Reconstructionist Rabbinical College invites adults of all ages to a very special event.

Autumn Song: Portrait of the Artist as an Older Woman

An evening with acclaimed Yiddish poet, singer and songwriter
Beyle Schachter-Gottesman

autumn offers

baskets full of gold...

Thursday, December 13, at 7:30 p.m.
Reform Congregation Keneseth Israel
8339 Old York Road, Elkins Park, PA

Join us as this renowned artist reflects on her journey in later life through song, poetry and conversation. At 87, she continues to create and share her art.

Schachter-Gottesman received a 2005 National Endowment for the Arts Heritage Fellowship and is the subject of the documentary film Song of Autumn. Her son, Itzik Gottesman, associate editor of the Yiddish Forward, will serve as her interpreter.

The event is free. Reservations appreciated: e-mail hiddur@rrc.edu or call 215.576.0800, ext. 152.

Co-sponsoring organizations (list in formation): Beth Sholom Congregation, Coming of Age, Drexel University Judaic Studies Program, Gratz College, JCCs of Greater Philadelphia Department of Adult Services, Jewish Children's Folkshul, Jewish Reconstructionist Federation, One Book One Jewish Community, Philly Hillel, Reform Congregation Keneseth Israel, Sholom Aleichem Club, University of Pennsylvania Jewish Studies Program, Workmen's Circle, Youngish and Yiddish

This program is made possible through the generous support of the Tuttleman Family Foundation.

Hiddur הידור

THE CENTER FOR AGING AND JUDAISM

